Facebook: Ballamoar Campsite

Website:

<http://www.ballamoarcampsite.im>

Description: Ballamoar Campsite is situated in Ballaugh Glen, 200 metres north of the village. With beautiful views and ease of access to the manx hills, the site provides everything a visitor could want, from TT visitor to mountain bike enthusiast to rambler. The site includes:

- New purpose built shower / toilet blocks
- Electric hookup points for both tents and motor homes/caravans
- A new office block which has a kitchen, laundry and lounge
- Wifi available at a small cost
- Campfires are allowed outside of TT & MGP at the wardens discretion.
(must not be unattended, must be off the ground and we reserve the right to ask you to extinguish the fire at any time)

Ballaugh is a old village of about 1000 inhabitants, 7 miles west of Ramsey. The village, approximately 200 metres from the campsite, is based around the village shop (Spar) with a combined post office and the public house (The Raven). There are bus stops either side of the main road servicing other areas of the Island on a regular basis.

Scout Leader Review: The guy was very friendly. Charged 2.20 per child with leaders going free. Although as scouts we can use a public site with others using it at the same time he has closed it off to other campers so we have the whole site. Plus there are 2 fields he has that we can use for games.

Very clean with several shower & toilet blocks. (10.09.2014)

Website:
<http://www.manxscouts.com/>

Description: This rural site consisting of about 2 acres at the top of Silverdale Glen. The site is available for outdoor camping where up to 15 small tents can be pitched on two different levels. There are steep slopes between the levels.

The site has a toilet block with sinks, hot water and showers on the top level with space for 5/6 tents, the other pitches are down by the Silverburn River, which runs through the site.

Campfires can be lit within the walls of the ruined stone building only.

The onsite building can also be used for meetings and is a convenient space for use during camps. The building can also be used for sleeping, in an emergency situation.

There is limited road parking and also some parking up the narrow lane to the site. The site is in easy walking distance of Silverdale or Ballasalla through the Glen, providing access to a number of amenities.

Silverdale Glen provides a play area, boating lake, and a famous water powered merry go round (believed to be the oldest example of its type in the world). The site also hosts a cafe, which serves a variety of hot and cold meals, snacks and ice cream. There is also a pottery craft studio and gift shop. The Glen is owned by Manx National Trust and consists of dense woodland and streams. It has well laid out paths leading past small waterfalls and over wooden bridges near shallow lily ponds. There is also a Monks Well in the Glen, a perfect place to wish with a few coins.

Rule 9.57      Nights Away Permits:

a. There are four categories of permit:

Indoor – for staying in a building that has toilets plumbed into a waste disposal system (i.e. a cess pit, storage tank or mains drains) and access to running drinking water;

Camp Site – for staying at a site that has toilets plumbed into a waste disposal system (eg. a cess pit, storage tank or mains drains) and access to running drinking water;

Green Field – for staying at any site where any of the above facilities do not exist – for example, a summer camp on a farmer's field;

Lightweight Expedition – for planning on staying at any site for not more than one night before moving on. The core activity is a form of expedition, not residential, and all the equipment is transported with the participants. eg. QSA/DofE hikes, expedition hikes, canoe expeditions.

I. Notification:

i. The relevant home Commissioner (or their nominee) must be notified before any camping or residential event takes place. Seven days notice should be given;

ii. Where a camp or residential event takes place using facilities not owned or operated by Scouting, for example a youth hostel, a public (commercial) campsite, or a farmer's field, the host District Commissioner must be notified beforehand. 14 days notice should be given;

iv. The notification must include all the information required in the Nights Away Notification Form (NAN).
